2. How your Warranty operates

2.1 We provide this Warranty to you as part of the contract of sale of the Vehicle. We are the issuer of the warranty and have responsibility for payment of claims during the Warranty Term.

This Warranty is not:

- a) a contract of insurance. Neither us nor our warranty administrator, Davantage, are acting as an insurer;
- b) associated with the manufacturer of your Vehicle and is not an extension of any warranties provided by the manufacturer of your Vehicle; and
- c) is not a repair or maintenance plan for your Vehicle.

2.2 We have appointed Davantage as a contract and claims administrator for this Warranty. This means that Davantage will do things in respect of this Warranty as our agent, including considering any claims you lodge and (if your claim is approved) authorising repairs, settling claims, answering questions you have about this Warranty (and exercising our rights under this Warranty Contract). Should you have any enquiries regarding any aspect of the details within this Warranty Contract, or if you wish to make a claim on this Warranty, contact Davantage.

2.3 You agree that we will not be required to pay a Warranty claim where Davantage has finalised its review of your claim and either:

- a) Davantage pays the claim in its capacity as administrator of this Warranty; or
- b) Davantage provides notice to you that the claim does not satisfy the terms of this Warranty Contract and the claim will not be paid (for example, this may occur because an Exclusion applies).

Davantage’s decision about a claim is final.

2.4 To make a claim or query, you will need to contact Davantage in the first instance. Davantage’s contact details are set out in clause 12: Contact us. If you wish to make a complaint about Davantage’s services or any decision Davantage makes regarding a claim, you can contact Davantage’s Complaints Officer on 1300 092 882.

Davantage will acknowledge receipt of your complaint within one (1) business day and attempt to resolve it within thirty (30) days after your complaint was first lodged.

If you are still not satisfied with a decision made by Davantage about your claim, you can contact us to have the decision reviewed. If you are still dissatisfied with the outcome, you can contact the Department or Office of Fair Trading in your State or Territory for assistance.

2.5 The commencement date of this Warranty will be the later of the date of delivery of the Vehicle, or the expiry of any Manufacturer’s Warranty.

2.6 The Warranty Contract will end on the expiry of the Warranty Term.

2.7 We may terminate your Warranty if you breach the terms and conditions of this Warranty Contract.

2.8 We will validate the Warranty Contract by completing the Customer Contract & Declaration and Warranty Term that we are prepared to offer you.

2.9 We will, in respect of the Mechanical Failure of the Vehicle, pay the reasonable cost, up to the Per Claim Limits applicable, to repair the failed Covered Components commensurate with the Vehicle’s age and kilometres travelled subject always to the Terms and Conditions in this document.

2.10 Repairs and/or replacement of the Vehicle’s Covered Components will only occur where the Mechanical Failure causes the damage. We and our agents (including Davantage) are not required to repair or authorise for repair, a component that is worn but still fit for use.

2.11 We and our agents (including Davantage) have no liability or responsibility for loss, damage, expenses or other liability you may incur as a result of any delays relating to the repair of your Vehicle which is caused by our suppliers’ delays in obtaining parts and/or materials required.

Australian Consumer Law

Summary of your relevant rights and remedies under the Australian Consumer Law

The Australian Consumer Law (ACL) protects consumers by automatically giving them basic, guaranteed rights for goods they purchase (Consumer Guarantees) at no charge. For example, the ACL requires that, taking account of the nature of goods, the price, any representations made by the supplier or manufacturer and other relevant circumstances, the goods must be free of defects, do what they are meant to do, be safe, durable and acceptable in appearance and finish, be fit for any particular purpose that the consumer makes known and comply with any description given or any demonstration model used.

In the event of a breach of a Consumer Guarantee where there is a major failure of the goods, consumers are entitled to reject the goods and choose a replacement or refund and claim compensation for any reasonable foreseeable loss or damage suffered by consumers as a result of the failure. Where the failure does not amount to a major failure, consumers are entitled to have the supplier repair or replace the goods or provide a refund (at the supplier's choice). Whether a specific failure breaches a Consumer Guarantee and a consumer is entitled to a remedy under the ACL will depend on the circumstances.

Consumer Guarantees have no set time limit but generally last for an amount of time that is reasonable to expect in the circumstances, given factors including the cost and quality of the goods, the use made of the goods or any representation made by the supplier or manufacturer. In some instances, manufacturers of goods provide a warranty in respect of their goods (a Manufacturer's Warranty) which is separate to the Consumer Guarantees. The exact amount of time that the Consumer Guarantees last in the case of a specific purchase varies depending on the circumstances.

Consumers with a claim for breach of a Consumer Guarantee should contact the supplier of the goods at first instance. If you are unable to reach resolution with the supplier as to the remedy, you should seek independent advice and/or contact the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) (contact details below) or your state/territory fair trading body.

Comparison of rights and remedies under the ACL and the features provided by Gold Warranty

The information below provides a summarised comparison of Consumer Guarantees and the protections offered by the purchase of Gold Warranty. Please note that this table is a summary only and is not a substitute for obtaining legal advice on the ACL and reading the full Terms and Conditions contained in this document, as certain limitations and exclusions apply in certain circumstances, including an exclusion if you fail to use the Vehicle in accordance with the manufacturer's care instructions or if the Vehicle is damaged in an accident.

In addition, you can visit www.accc.gov.au for more information on the Consumer Guarantees or information on how to contact the ACCC.
